

Introducing Pip and Zaz!

Spoiler alert -
these books
have happy endings!

Written by an adoptive mum, her adoptive daughter and their real-life social worker, in these books Pip and Zaz each tell their story of how they came to be adopted.

Pip is very little but still wants to know what is happening and to be reassured that her adopters will be kind and will know how to look after her.

Zaz is older; he has lots of questions to ask and he expects to be given honest answers.

Teachers, support staff and professionals: if you are supporting children who are being adopted or who are already with their adoptive family, these books will help you appreciate the huge transition adopted children experience when moving to their adoption family and to answer any questions from the children.

Parents and carers, these books will help you better understand the children's emotional needs and to support them, both at the time of their transition from foster carer to adopters and later on as they ask questions about their life story.
